

From: jmd@wrkgrp.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 2:55pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The expansion of OS services beginning with the inclusion of TCP/IP to Win95 has been a significant boon to consumers. The Internet explosion occurred with the release of free browsers to the public which financed their invention at the University of Illinois. The concept that the public was harmed by MSFT giving away the browser it originally purchased from the copyright holders mocks any standard of fairness.